

MEETING TITLE/TOPIC: "Behind the Scenes at Publishing Houses"

DESCRIPTION: Come find out what goes into publishing a book and how indexers fit into the process. Help build your business by knowing your clients' needs, desires, and constraints.

STRUCTURE OF MEETING:

A panel of publishing "experts" will first provide an informative presentation on how the publishing process works. This will be followed by an extensive question and answer session where attendees can ask specific questions about the publishing processing and how it relates to indexers.

Email questions that you would like the panelists to address to Brooke Graves. As the panel facilitator, Brooke will make sure your questions are answered sometime during the presentation/Q&A session. There will also be plenty of opportunity for spontaneous on-the-spot questions and answers.

PANELISTS:

Lynn Arts
Greg Feldman
Brooke Graves
Alice Levine
Craig Wise
